

CONCERT SCHEDULE

Thursday, July 21 7:30 p.m.

The Keelings

Remember the Keelings? We are excited to have them back at Peniel! Music and excellence run in their blood. Among them are an operator of a Christian bus tour company, a high school English teacher, a graphic and website designer (computer geek), a would-be Physical Therapy Assistant, and a Mechanical Engineer—all united in purpose to serve the Lord. And they are just as accomplished as musicians. Come expecting to hear great horns, keyboards and unbeatable family vocal harmony.

Sunday, July 24 7:00 p.m.

Victory Life Church Choir

The 32-member Victory Life Church Choir has been singing under the direction of Pastor Cyndie Rogers for seven years. Their focus is to lead believers in praise and worship to our Lord in styles similar to Brooklyn Tabernacle Choir and Christ Church Choir. They sang at Peniel in 2010, and we are very pleased to have them return.

Monday, July 25 7:00 p.m.

Tab Beechler

Innately gifted in music, Tab has been a solo artist for 20 years. With each concert rich in scripture and personal testimony, he sees God encourage, challenge and strengthen audiences. Tab is Peniel's Song Evangelist this year.

Friday, July 29 7:30 p.m.

Kentucky Mountain Bible College Singers

Music produced by Kentucky Mountain Bible College is always a treat! Voice of Truth is comprised of four male vocalists and one pianist, all devoted to Jesus, disciplined, and determined to reach for the goal of the high calling. Musically, KMBC brings you solid vocals, close harmonies, fresh arrangements of classic hymns, and tastefully selected contemporary praise.

PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

God Movers!

by Dan Segool

Hello Friends –
Lori, DJ,
Courtney, Josh and I
are looking forward to seeing you at our 116th Annual Encampment this summer.

Our theme this year is God Movers!

Are you ready to be MOVED by God's consuming fire? We know that God is on the MOVE. He is reaching out to people with the good news of Jesus Christ. He is working to bring in more believers before that last day comes. How wonderful that He wants us to be a part of His MOVEMENT!

Camp time is a great time to get your spirit MOVING again. I am excited every year as camp approaches, but I am especially excited THIS year. Why? First, as each year passes, we are getting closer and closer to that last, awesome day. Second, we have an absolutely fantastic line-up of workers and evangelists who are so diverse. You will enjoy great concerts, preaching, drama, recreation and fellowship. Our team is coming from far and wide to minister at Peniel, and I know that they will touch your heart.

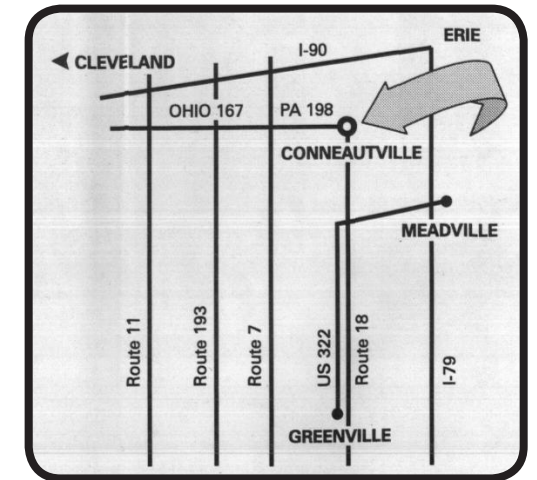

In the days to come, we will be on the MOVE on the campus and in planning to make everything ready for you to MOVE in. I will do all I can to make sure we are ready for you! But, there is one thing that only YOU can do, and I hope you will help me with that part of it.

Only YOU can make sure that you are at Peniel. Only YOU can make that decision, but I'll do my best to encourage you to get MOVING! I guarantee that you will be glad when you come, and I will be thrilled to see you.

It's time to get on the MOVE for God. It's time for Peniel!

EVANGELISTS

Rev. Ted L. Robinson

Commissioned with the Nazarenes, Rev. Ted Robinson has 40 years of ministry experience, including 17 years as senior pastor of growing churches. Gifted in evangelism and eschatology (end times), he delivers strong expository messages and communicates with ease this truth: Positive, Biblical, dynamic holiness yields victorious living—and thus, a readiness for the imminent return of Christ.

Rev. Roy Gearhart

Appointed with the United Methodists, Rev. Roy Gearhart returns to the platform for the first half of camp to deliver passionate, relevant, down-to-earth messages. Injecting creativity and interest, Rev. Gearhart's preaching style varies with his audience, and he occasionally dons a different "face" to present messages in drama—all intended to equip God's people to bear effective, cutting edge witness to Christ today.

Rev. Gary Bond

Rev. Gary Bond's lifelong purpose is to proclaim Christian holiness, which he has fulfilled in his 40-some years of traveling in evangelism. Comfortable in any venue from the concert hall, to the revival, to the camp meeting, Rev. Gary Bond returns to Peniel's platform for the second half of camp—this time to minister in rich, spoken messages. (But he might have a song or two in his briefcase!)

Tab Beechler, Music

By the time he found Jesus, at age 11, Tab had already discovered his innate musical ability. At age 15, he began accompanying Southern Gospel Music groups. Eventually God opened doors for a solo ministry and now, 20 years later, Tab is an experienced worship leader, mature in faith. Using several musical genres, Tab presents genuine worship experiences designed to connect people with God and each other.

MISSIONARIES

Seth & Veronica Porter (WGM)

Raised in a country Christian home, Seth knew that his hands-on skills could be used to further the Kingdom. Raised as an MK in Bolivia, Veronica recognized the heartache of sin and found a desire to bring others to Jesus. Separately called to missions, together they and their family are headed to Papua New Guinea, where Seth will prepare pastors for ministry by teaching them vocational skills!

YOUTH & CHILDREN

Andy Anderson, Youth Evangelist

Andy Anderson has a passion to reach today's youth through evangelism, discipleship, and leadership training. Serving in Florida on staff with Word of Life for the past 13 years, he and wife Nancy help churches develop vibrant youth ministries. Last year, the Andersons helped reap a harvest of over 500 students and children who accepted Christ.

Nicole Leisure, Youth Superintendent

Preparing for ministry in Uganda with World Gospel Mission, Nicole and husband Raymond have experienced a miraculous journey. Nicole's numerous experiences in Christian education, coupled with spiritual maturity, well qualify her as 2011's Youth Superintendent.

Jason Campbell, Children's Evangelist

Raised in Haiti as an MK (Missionary Kid), Jason Campbell's life has been missions. As a creative producer at OMS' World Headquarters, Jason composes original music, audiovisual presentations and VBS-type mission programs for kids, "finding creative ways to paint kids' imaginations with the colors of light and sound for Jesus." Welcome back, Jason!

Mick & Nora Suman (OMS)

In 2002, over 20 years into their ministry, the Sumans went to Asia where they learned a new language and taught in various universities and in a middle school. They plan to continue their teaching ministry to Asia, and also to Europe, via the internet. The Sumans have previously ministered 15 years in Spain and 7 years at Houghton College as missionaries-in-residence. Who knows where God will lead them next!
